her father was engaged in business. He died when she was a child and she and her mother went to Bremerhaven, where she met Paul Hespe.

That was six years ago. Paul was then preparing to enter the navy. Before entering it he pledged his troth with Fraulein Hilda and told her that as soon as it was possible to do so he would make her his wife. Then along came the war. Lieut. Paul then was in China. He finally joined the Elitel Friedrich crew and took part in the many thrilling raids made by the converted liner.

When the boat was interned Paul wrote to Hilda to come over. She completed her plans a few weeks ago and salled on the Noordam.

"I shall be an interned bride," she laughed to-day before leaving for Newport News with Lieut. Paul.
